

Sign 29 Industrial/habitation cave

Hisban has many caves that may originally have started as quarries but that later were converted to industrial sites and/or dwellings for people and animals. This one has multiple chambers divided by masonry arches and walls and includes two cisterns. Caves were used in various ways in nearly all periods.

