

Sign 17. Mamluk bath

The furnace and bath which we see inserted into this foundation wall of a monumental Roman building was last in use during Mamluk times. The monumental building may have been a temple, as locally minted Roman coins depict a temple dedicated to Jupiter.

