

Sign 20. Roman agriculture prowess

The fertile valley on both sides of this modern road was in the past endowed with hillside terraces, watch towers, retention dams, field cisterns and reservoirs. Agriculture based on such rainwater harvesting technology was especially advanced during Byzantine times.

