

Sign 4. Ottoman farm house

An important goal of archaeologists at Tall Hisban has been to illuminate the daily lives and survival strategies of ordinary farmers and shepherds that have outlasted multiple millennia of imperial domination. This farm house from the Ottoman period (AD 1516-1917) had three rooms and a taboun (oven) for making bread.

